

Keeping the Love You Find

A Relationship Class for Gay, Lesbian, and Straight Singles based on Imago Relationship Therapy

Upcoming Workshop Dates:

Sept 9 to Oct 14, 2008

Tuesdays (6 weeks)
8 pm to 10 pm

Royal Oak, MI

$400 per participant. Fees include the workshop itself, coffee and tea. Meal breaks and overnight accommodations are not included.

This 6 week workshop is appropriate for singles not currently in a relationship, who are tired of making the same mistakes over and over again and want to learn the secret to finding and keeping lasting love. This workshop is all about transforming the self.

Often we are tempted to think the problem is finding the right person. But this workshop is all about becoming the right person.

This workshop is also an ideal follow-up workshop for those who have taken the couples workshop. Couples have gone through this workshop together after the couples workshop. It is a great opportunity to reflect on one's self within the relationship.

What you can expect from this workshop

Self-Discovery

Discover why you are always attracted to similar types of people. Understand the connection between the frustrations you've experienced in past relationships and your frustrations in childhood. Recognize your past wounds and the defenses which you use to protect yourself from being hurt again. These are the walls that prevent more intimate relationships.

Healing Past Wounds

You will begin the process of healing past wounds and get a chance to "say goodbye" to former love partners. As you release old feelings you'll be able to look forward to the future and begin to get over your fears.

New Relationship Skills

You will get to practice effective skills to help you break the negative cycle of relating. You'll discover how you inadvertently sabotage relationships to protect yourself from unconscious fears and anticipated hurts. With the new tools learned at this workshop, you will be able to convert conflict into growth in your next relationship.

Create a Plan for Personal Change

By the end of the workshop you will know what you must change in yourself to Keep The Love You Find - and you'll create a step-by-step personal program to help you achieve your goals.

Meet New People

Meet new people who are also involved in personal growth.

Understand the Mystery of Love

Learn about the stages of love. Develop an understanding of romantic love, the power struggle and real love.

Recognize the Role of Sex and Sexual Chemistry Between You and a Partner

The role that sex plays in a relationship is important. Learn how it can help and how it can hurt your relationships.
